BHA have great pleasure in announcing the formation of an Australia-wide Youth Chorus (the Southern Cross Chorus) to travel to the International Mid-Winter Convention in Reno Nevada in January 2016.

BHA is also pleased to announce the appointment of Jonathan Albertini as MD for this Chorus.

Whilst in the USA participating in the convention, the chorus will also have the chance for top level coaching and other performance opportunities as well as some tourist activities.

The chorus will come together as part of the youth programme at Melbourne Convention in September 2015. On Friday 22 January 2016 the chorus will gather in Sydney for a coaching camp prior to departing for the USA on Sunday 31 January.

Singers who would like to join this chorus will need to make a basic payment of around $2500 by 30 October 2015 to cover travel and accommodation. To go ahead, the chorus will need a minimum of 20 singers.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Trevor Rootes indicating:
- Your name
- Your current chorus/quartet
- Your part
- Your date of birth

December is a time of Christmas sing-outs, and probably one of the best times of the year for exposure of our art-form. I trust you have all participated in many of these and enjoyed them. To me they are more than “just another gig”. They allow us to not only share our music and singing, but also enable us to share and spread the Christmas spirit and all that means to people. I personally feel fantastic after a Christmas gig at a shopping centre where the shoppers stop and listen, sometimes sing along, and then leave with a smile on their face and a little bit more Christmas spirit in their soul.

In the last newsletter I posed a couple of slightly controversial ideas that the National Council wants your feedback on. Firstly, introducing Mixed Harmony into our contests, and secondly suggesting that before any of our groups sing out in public representing BHA they undergo some sort of “evaluation” to ensure that they are of a suitable standard. I invited comments back, but so far have received none. I do encourage you, if you have a view on either of these topics to contact me ASAP at president@barbershop.org.au.

The New Year brings a refreshment of ideas and goals, and your National Council will once again be devoting three days to strategies and discussions at our Annual Face to Face meeting, this year to be held in Sydney at the end of February. Not only will we discuss and possibly decide on the above two policy issues, but also a number of other matters. If you have any matter you wish Council to consider, now is the time to speak up. Drop me or one of your Councillors a line to let us know what is on your mind.

2015 will also bring our next Convention, in Melbourne from 16-20 September. The program is shaping up to be a very exciting one again, and will run something like this:

Wednesday 16 September
- Youth/Schools Workshop
- Youth/Schools Contest
- Youth/Schools Concert
- John Little Show

Thursday 17 September
- Youth Chorus Rehearsal
- Massed Sing
- Chorus Corral
- Welcome Dinner

Friday 18 September
- Quartet Contest
- Semi-Final and Final

Saturday 19 September
- Chorus Contest
- Evaluations
- Showcase Concert

Sunday 20 September
- BHA Forum
- Ecumenical Service
- Evaluations
- Farewell Lunch

A pretty full 4 or 5 days, and then in the afternoon after the Farewell Lunch, members will depart for Harmony College which will run until lunch time on Wednesday 23 September.

Finally, I am excited that next year, for the first time, we will have four quartets representing BHA at the Pittsburgh BHS International contest, viz., Lockout and The Establishment in the Open contest, and Blindside and The Grand Angus in the Collegiate contest. Congratulations guys!

Sing-cerely,

Ian Mulholland President

Regions gear up for the Melbourne Convention

BHA Standing Order No.8 (Rules for Regions) provides (amongst other things) : “for the formation of geographical regions to better pursue the objectives of the Association”.

Currently there are six BHA Regions within Australia ie

- Western Region (WA)
- Central Region (SA)
- Tasmanian Region

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all Members

2015 will also bring our next Convention, in Melbourne from 16-20 September. The program is shaping up to be a very exciting one again, and will run something like this:
One of the responsibilities for each of these Regions is: “organising quartet and chorus singing events and competitions for the region”

By now, you will all be aware of the 13th BHA National Convention Harmony Goldrush which is being held in Melbourne starting Wednesday 16 September 2015.

All Quartets hoping to enter this exciting upcoming Convention must qualify beforehand at their relevant Regional Convention as per Standing Order No.6 (Contest Rules).

"QUALIFICATION
1.8.1. A process in which the scores gained in a Regional contest are used to determine the right of a performer to participate in the following National contest."

The dates for your relevant Regional Convention have now been set thus:
- Victorian Region......................18th April 2015
- Eastern Region (NSW).............2nd May 2015
- Central Region (SA)...............2nd May 2015
- Western Region (WA).............9th May 2015
- Tasmanian Region...................13th June 2015
- Sunshine Region (Qld & NT).....13th June 2015

QUARTETS don’t miss out on your chance to compete in the Melbourne National Convention.

These Regional Conventions are also great fun and shouldn’t be missed. They offer not only the opportunity to qualify but enable you to enjoy the camaraderie, sing a few tags and build friendships with other Barbershoppers from your Region.

Any questions should be directed to your Regional Chairman (Re BHA Website > Contact) http://www.barbershop.org.au/dbpage.php?pg=contact or directly to Dan Millgate VP Events events@barbershop.org.au

Youth Development Policy

Youth development is the lifeblood of BHA. I bet there is hardly a member out there who would disagree. That’s why we have developed a comprehensive youth development policy to guide our combined efforts over the next few years.

The policy starts from the foundation that teachers and music educators have the greatest day-to-day contact with young people and the greatest capacity to promote barbershop singing among young people. The policy has four key strategies. None of them are rocket science.

- Quartet visits to schools
- Teacher Professional Development
- Barbershop Big Day Out
- Youth Events

While the policy’s primary purpose is not about active recruitment into existing BHA choruses and quartets, it does recognise the important role of local regions and clubs in providing opportunities for young men to sing in club choruses and youth choruses.

So we now finally have a policy but I still have some reservations. My life experience tells me that often organisations’ policies are prepared and presented with enthusiasm, but are often then filed away and are hardly ever looked at again.
The challenge to each regional board and club committee is to take time to discuss the youth development policy and consider how all or some of its elements can be adopted.

The policy is at

Improving your Ensemble

What can each of us do as individuals to develop the musicality of our ensemble?

Listen to a lot of music. Get on YouTube, get on iTunes, get on Spotify or dust off the record player and take some time to listen and enjoy good music. It doesn't have to be barbershop but listening to a lot of barbershop and familiarising yourself with our vocal art form is a great idea!

Commit to personal practice during the week. Outstanding vocal coach, Eddie Martinez, encourages us to ask a very poignant question of ourselves: "If every member of my ensemble did as much or as little preparation on the other 6 days when we do not rehearse, would my ensemble be better or worse because of it?"

Make use of the plethora of resources on the Barbershop Harmony Society website. You may choose to take an online music theory class or you might spend some time reading the Contest and Judging Manual or you may just want to browse the extensive music catalogue and discover new material for your ensemble!

Always arrive prepared for rehearsal. Completing a personal warm up, reviewing sheet music and learning material, leaving the cares of your day at the door and giving your director or quartet colleagues your undivided attention are all ways to maximise efficiency during rehearsal.

Rehearse like it's a performance. On average we spend 90% of the time we spend singing with our ensemble in rehearsal and only 10% of the time in performance. Always sing with your best voice. Give yourself a goal every time you sing. John Newell, of Realtime fame and Let it Out Vocal Coaching, quite aptly states: "Excellence is not an act, but a habit."

Marketing Harmony

As we approach the close of 2014, it’s time to check -

Are you aware of what marketing support is available to your Club?

I’ve listed below a summary of the marketing tools available to all Clubs, all these can be found under the “Downloads” drop down menu under “Marketing” on the BHA website...

The Marketing page shows all the individual services and support our marketing team can provide, together with specific information on:

- Membership Drive Guidelines
- Planning a Membership Drive
- Membership Marketing Checklist
- Branding, use of the BHA Logo
- What you need to know about using the BHA Logo
- Club Marketing – Who Does What?
- Sing in Harmony – About the Course
What your PR guy will need from your Club.

Do you know what’s available and are you using these resources?

Guys, I hope this helps, and PLUS, if your Club has a great new marketing initiative, or finds a particular method of promotion really works well, then please let me know, maybe all Clubs can benefit....!

If you want more information regarding any of the above, then please contact me anytime at: marketing@barbershop.org.au

Best wishes to you all for a Happy & Healthy Christmas and New Year,

Keith

Message from your retiring Secretary

This brings a parting greeting to all our helpful members. The past ten years as BHA Secretary have seen me both encouraged and challenged.

What is encouraging is the number of members (from affiliated BHA Regions) who have sought guidance on the formation of Young Singers in Harmony Not-for Profit Co-operatives Affiliates. Such formation is being facilitated in various States and Territories (prompted by New South Wales and Victorian Legislatures) – excepting only the West Australian authorities.

For the guidance of each BHA Region executive, a copy of the Young Singers in Harmony (NSW) Constitution is being forwarded to each Region as an example (the cost of incorporation will be a minor factor).

This will then permit expansion to allow for recruitment of membership to Schools as part of their Music Department. This will enable transmission to member schools under the terms of the Mini-TV Transmission Licence which I have arranged through APRA for Barbershop Harmony Australia. This is now available, as and if required, from year-to-year at a controlled annual fee.

This will allow for educational Music Harmony training with the guidance of qualified educational instruction available through the BHA Vice–President Youth Development. This facility will also be available to BHA members. It will be subject to an annual limitation of numbers. Participating members will be part of the Co-operative Cultural training and expansion in live instructional learning performances as arranged through the current BHA Vice–Presidents Membership and Events.

This promises to allow for wide-spread expansion of participation of BHA Membership and of affiliated School-Based Young Singers in Harmony Co-operatives.

I will remain available, as a Consultant, to assist the incoming BHA Secretary, Kieran Hutton, in promoting and organising these activities.

I offer my congratulations in these planned endeavours to our President Ian Mulholland and the members of the Council and Regions.

With renewed parting thanks and with Christmas Greetings to All,

Sin(g)cerely, Kevin White

PS - Don’t overlook the need to annually renew Club registration and also Re-registration of continuing Quartets AND the prompt registration of newly-formed Quartets along with payment of Members Fees.

Looking for BHA documents?

As this is the busy time of year for our Choruses and Quartets with many Christmas sing-outs booked already, you will be asked to provide venues with a copy of the BHA Insurance cover. You can get this at any time from the BHA Website www.barbershop.org.au under Downloads> Documents.

Whilst on the Download page I suggest you check out the other items available – they are important and make interesting reading.

Also, Quartets, before you do a public performance remember to check the Website to ensure that you are registered for the current BHA Financial Year and therefore covered under our insurance and Performing Rights policies. Look under Groups>Quartets. If your Quartet’s name is not there then you are not currently registered and so not covered.

I wish you all a Happy, Harmonious Christmas Season with your family and friends, with a wonderful Barbershop year to follow.

Nerida White BHA Administration

Are you the person we need?

BHA is looking for someone to take on the job of BHA Librarian. This is a very interesting job which consists of mailing loans to members when they borrow items and ensuring that they are returned in good condition. It also means that, as Librarian, you will have access to all the manuals, CDs and DVDs on hand whenever you want them. The Library fits into a large bookcase.

The BHA Administration Officer will be responsible for ordering new items such as CDs/DVDs from International and National Conventions and having them sent to the Librarian for listing on the BHA Website for easy reference by our members.

Members can borrow items for one month at a time for free – all they have to pay is return postage.

If you would like to put your hand up please contact Nerida White at admin@barbershop.org

Soundwaves had great pleasure in paying a visit to the Children’s Ward at Gosford District Hospital to sing Christmas Carols and to present a cheque from the proceeds of our Annual Concert. The smiles on the faces of the children were fantastic to see even though some of them are going through a really tough time.

This is the second year we have supported the Children’s Ward and we hope to continue to do so.

We had a sad event with the passing of Don Brickley. Don was with us for over 15 years and was a stalwart of our chorus. Don also had 5 years with the Blue Mountainairs before he moved to the Central Coast and joined SOUNDWAVES. We will miss him greatly.

Gary Kirk MD

The period up to Christmas is typically busy for Penrith Harmony. We have our Thursday evening and Saturday morning singouts for our sponsor Penrith Homemakers, a Carols by Candlelight event at Penrith Paceway which attracts thousands, and a performance at Penrith Plaza which is performed each year for Disability Shoppers Night.

Next year, in March, we have been invited to sing at the opening of a Buddhist Temple south of Sydney. Already able to boast a regal performance a few years ago, this will be our first big multi-cultural, multi-faith event!

Our new chorus members this year Phillip Powell, Hank Hamersma, Kurt Senkbeil, Liam Holt and Richard Barakat have been great assets. Phillip won our singer of the year award. Richard is highly skilled in areas of sound, lighting and production, and has been responsible for professional recordings that we are looking to produce for promotional CDs and for our upgraded website.

A major loss for us will be Andrew Wright, an excellent tenor and very knowledgeable singer, who will be moving to Melbourne next year. Andrew first joined AAMBS back in 1988 and he is also responsible for the building of our risers! I am sure that our loss will prove to be a great gain for the Melbournaires. We wish Andrew all the best and we will look forward to catching up with him at Convention time in 2015.

Paul Ryan Secretary

2014 has been a very good year for the Fleurieu Harmony Chorus following an unsettled year in 2013 with the loss of several singers and the resignation of our Musical Director.

The chorus has recruited well and is at its highest membership of 24 members now under the direction of our previous assistant director Andrew Bradley who has taken the chorus to a new standard of performance. The chorus won second prize at the Adelaide Eisteddfod and has performed 22 singouts, 6 busking sessions, attended the Central Region Convention and sung at a members 50th wedding anniversary and sadly a funeral.
Last month the chorus was also privileged to join the Festival StatesMen Senior Chorus for their final sing out performance. We have been very close comrades in song with them over the past years, singing together in many concerts and so sad to see it come to an end, however the name will live on in the safe hands of the youth chorus.

Fleurieu Harmony will finish the year with their breakup being a luncheon cruise on the Port River joined by Harborside Harmony as invited guests and no doubt there will be a song or two to entertain the other cruisers.

We wish all in the Barbershop fraternity a very happy Christmas and a Prosperous and Healthy New Year

Gordon Tomlinson Publicity Officer

We have enjoyed another good year culminating in our much anticipated gigs at the local Shopping Mall at Baulkham Hills. This is an annual event for us and involves a two hour roving brief on a number of Saturday mornings leading up to Christmas usually finishing, most appropriately, outside the Barbershop.

Our last function for the year was at the Mother Earth Café which we booked out for our Christmas function enabling us to enjoy the inevitable spontaneous singing without disturbing any other patrons.

We are all looking forward to the Eastern Region Harmony College in February, the Eastern Region Competition in May and the National Convention in September. An exciting year to come.

Merry Christmas to all our Barbershop friends.

Dick Bushell President

Men In Harmony

We, here in the West, have had an interesting year. This time last year we were battling as quite a few of our top singers decided to seek greener pastures in another chorus. To top it off, we were informed that we were losing our MD in the middle of the year.

Our standard went down and we were wondering whether we were able to keep going. The good news is that we were able to acquire the services of Adrian Gimpel as MD and have gone from strength to strength, so much so that in this Christmas period we have been able to tot up over 18 gigs and are fine tuning our techniques.

We also had the pleasure of celebrating Andy Aberle’s 90th Birthday which was a wonderful occasion. As you may be aware he was one of the leading lights in starting up the Barbershop movement in Australia.

All the Men in Harmony wish all our fellow Barbershoppers a very joyous Christmas and a Harmonious and Happy New Year.

Very Best Wishes

David Winch President
It’s been a wonderful year for Sydney Harmony. As Christmas rapidly approaches, we look back with pleasure and satisfaction at a job well done. At our recent year-end dinner we were able to relive our many highs and the occasional low through a beautifully well-constructed slide show video. Many of these stories have already been shared in previous editions of this publication. But there’s more...

Amongst the awards that were announced was the announcement to confer our highest award of Life Membership on two of the most dedicated, committed and hard-working members of the Chorus, Guy Gibson and Tony Sykes. Guy and Tony have given distinguished service to Sydney Harmony since the very formation of the Chorus over 15 years ago. Both are well known throughout Australian Barbershop and Sweet Adelines organisations and have performed on and off stage with aplomb. Of the many highlights mentioned, their gold as part of Freefall Quartet in 2003 and their representation of Australia in the 2005 Internationals in Salt Lake City are two of the pinnacles. Our congratulations and thanks go to Guy and Tony.

The dinner and its entertainment was not enough; a day later, we enjoyed a great afternoon of singing at our Sydney Sings Christmas concert! Adding a special dimension, the Choir of the Holy Family Parish, Emerton shared their cultural and musical roots with us. A special thanks goes out to them and to the ladies of Circular Keys Chorus, for joining us and contributing such wonderful performances. We plan a lot more like this!

A Merry Christmas to all singers and may you enjoy peace and happiness in the new year!

John Osborn
As 2014 draws to a close it’s time to take a breath and reflect on what we have been doing over the last year. One of the most important events we had the privilege of participating in was the ‘This is Your Life’ tribute to one of our long term members and great mate, Ian Mavor. Ian has been a member of The Blenders since 1993 and is the ‘official Chaplain’ to The Blenders. Ian has officiated at many Blenders events over the years, many happy - some sad. Ian is now facing his own personal battle and we ask that you keep him in your thoughts and prayers.

Early in December, The Blenders conducted a Voices in Paradise Christmas which is a follow-on from the highly successful VIP Youth concerts held earlier in the year. This event was open to all age groups, both male and female and gave registrants a full day of workshops where they learnt and fine-tuned two Christmas songs.

The registrants were then able to perform their newly learnt songs with The Blenders and our sister chorus, Coastal Charisma, in front of a large audience in an evening concert. The concert concluded with a combined male/female chorus of over one hundred singers on the risers performing a beautiful 8 part version of ‘Let There Be Peace’. And for just double the fun they got to do it all again the following evening at the Movie World Christmas Carols to an estimated audience of 5,000 people. What a memorable experience for all the participants.

2014 has been a busy year for The Blenders including two VIP workshops and concerts, attendance at the Wellington Pan Pacs, Regional Convention, Citizenship Ceremonies, and the opening of the Gold Coast Light Rail System and many other functions. December has been no exception with carolling at major shopping centres and singing at the Gold Coast Arts Centre.

2015 is shaping up to be just as busy with a major highlight being a performance in Carnegie Hall, New York with Deke Sharon in March. We will have more about this exciting event in the next issue. Also, don’t forget the Directors Workshop with Charlotte Murray (MD of Vocal FX) and Jonathan Albertini (MD the Blenders) on the 22nd February.

If you are travelling through the Gold Coast during the Christmas break, our rehearsals commence on the 12th January. Come and have a sing with us. We would love to see you.

Finally, from all at The Blenders family, we would like to wish all our fellow barbershoppers and their families a very Happy Christmas and a harmonious 2015.

Ian Mackey Secretary
What to do for a Christmas Break-up? This was the task posed for the Lead Section a few months ago. We have had some great ones put on by other Sections previously. So, not to be outdone we came up with the concept of a bush dance at a local country retreat.

Camping and caravanning was also available, so we knew that a good roll-up of that weird breed of Australians who don’t like comfortable beds and 42 inch TV’s would be catered for.

A local DJ was contacted and he put on a great night for us. We learnt many old and (some new) dance routines, sang along to a lot of his songs, plus a lovely barbecue meal and plenty of liquid refreshment.

The night was topped off by ice cream, lamingtons and custard and a few songs from the chorus.

Courtesy of Glen Hanssen, picture snapper extraordinaire, we had a photo booth with some fairly weird and wonderful get-ups donned by families; and many laughs were heard last Thursday at our final rehearsal for 2014 when the photos were on display for all to choose their favourite.

We are all now looking forward to 2015 and the chance to travel to Melbourne for the National Convention.
