General Advice Warning

RETAIL CLIENTS

Under the Financial Services Reform Act (The Act) Retail Clients are provided with additional levels of protection from other insurance purchasers. The Act defines Retail clients as:

Individuals or a small manufacturing business employing less than 100 people or any other business employing less than 20 people.

And that they are being provided a financial service or product that relates to the following insurance covers:

Motor Vehicle (under 2 tonne), Home Building, Contents, Personal and Domestic, Sickness and Accident or Travel, Consumer Credit and other classes as prescribed by regulations.

IMPORTANT NOTICE - WHAT ADVICE IS BEING PROVIDED (RETAIL CLIENTS ONLY)

If you are a RETAIL CLIENT (refer above) and a Statement of Advice has not been provided to you with this invoice then the advice we are giving you related to this transaction is General Advice.

General Advice is advice that has been prepared without considering your current objective's, financial situation or needs. Therefore, before acting on this advice, you should consider the appropriateness of the advice having regard to your current objective's, financial situations or needs.

If the advice provided relates to the acquisition or possible acquisition of a new insurance policy and the insurer has prepared a Products Disclosure Statement (PDS) we will have attached the PDS for your review. You should consider the PDS prior to making the decision to purchase this product. Further information regarding the income we have been paid by the Insurer for this transaction is available on request.

TERRORISM EXCLUSION ENDORSEMENT

The coverage provided under this Policy shall not apply to the following; Any loss, cost or expense arising out of or related to, either directly or indirectly, any Act of Terrorism as defined within the policy.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the Insurer every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your Duty however does not require disclosure of matter;-

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer:
- that is of common knowledge:
- that Your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know:
- as to which compliance with Your duty is waived by the Insurer.

NON DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with Your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If Your non disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

PREVENTING OUR RIGHT OF RECOVERY

Where another person is liable to compensate You for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by this Policy but You have agreed not to seek recovery of any monies from that person, We will not cover You under this policy for that loss, damage or liability.

CANCELLATION OF YOUR POLICY

If your policy is cancelled before the expiry of the period of insurance, we will refund to you only the net return premium which we have received from the insurer. The Insurer may charge a short term cancellation fee. We will not refund to you any part of the policy/membership fee we receive for arranging the cover.
