Workshop with Brian Martin

Read Music to Sing - Sight singing!

If you find written music a bit of a mystery, then this workshop is for you! Explore the concepts and tools you need to look at a piece of music and sing it off the page!

This fun interactive sight singing workshop is perfect for singers looking for some music theory basics and a window into the wonderful world of written music. If you've had some singing experience, either solo or choral, and can hold a tune, this is for you.

Based in Maleny, Brian is an internationally renowned a Cappella director, vocal coach, teacher, composer, arranger, multi-instrumentalist and all round fun guy, who makes learning easy and joyful. Join him to unravel the mystery of sight singing!
