

Learn to Teach Singing in Harmony

2 ½ Day Intensive
Workshop

SYDNEY 8 - 10 Sep

Harmony Leader Training

‘Spreading The Joy’ with Brian Martin:
Friday Night 8 September.... 7 - 9 pm

Saturday 9 & Sunday 10 September 9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Internationally renowned, Maleny-based A cappella director, vocal coach, teacher, composer, arranger, multi-instrumentalist and all round fun guy, Brian Martin, is giving a workshop on how to teach singing in harmony.

This 2 ½ day workshop is ideal for teachers, choirmasters, group facilitators, kiirtan leaders and those who find themselves teaching others in any musical capacity, or who wish to!

This opportunity is a must to hone your skills and learn more about creating harmony in your community. Whether you are a seasoned conductor or an enthusiastic beginner, this workshop will support you at your own level and is loads of fun!! Reading music is not required.

You will gain a set of valuable tools to develop and improve your OWN harmony leader techniques that can help you to facilitate your own vocal group or can be adapted to other musical training, e.g. for solo or instrumental musicians.

Bring questions and your enthusiasm!! The course covers:

- Starting & leading a song
- Conducting techniques—universal and learnt
- Skills for teaching songs and harmonies (rapport, chunking, pacing, etc.)
- Group cohesion and methods of positive reinforcement
- Rehearsal and performance techniques
- The art of making learning fun
